BOVRIL DEFIES DISEASE.

The fact that over 500 British hospitals and kindred public institutions use and prescribe Bovril is sufficient in itself to prove that it fortifies the system against disease. As rats infest a dirty, unhealthy tenement, so disease will install itself in a deranged system and take a hold. Bovril shakes the grip when disease is there by making clean, healthy blood; the attack weakens, the microbes die, and Bovril is triumphant. But do not use Bovril only to escape; rather prepare your system against the attack of disease by using it to invigorate, and create clean and wholesome blood and organs. The result will please you.

BOVRIL is an energizing and sustaining beverage, which by its merits has become a household word from one end of the world to the other. Just as the electric light has surpassed the rushlight of our grandmothers, so Bovril has surpassed the meat extracts and beef teas of a quarter of a century ago. It is the culmination of scientific achievement in the production of a strengthening, nourishing and vitalising food beverage. In health, Bovril is a shield against the effects of a muggy, humid climate; in weakness, a substitute for regular meals; and in sickness, the right hand of the doctor and nurse in their efforts to provide the patient with true nourishing food, readily taken, palatable, and digestible.

LONDON, April 25th.

Lord Charles Beresford has been returned for Woolwich unopposed, replacing Colonel Edwin Hughes, Conservative, resigned.

NEW SHIPS FOR THE BRITISH NAVY.

The Admiralty has placed orders for two battleships, five first-class cruisers, and eight

THE AMERICAN BEEF TRUST OPPOSED.

The Attorney General for the United to be taken against the great Beef Trust on the ground that it restrains the interests of trade.

THE AMERICAN STEEL CORPORATION.

The American Steel Corporation is issuing bonds to the extent of fifty millions of dollars for the purpose of modernizing its plant. By this it is calculated that large economies will be effected, and at the same time the capacity greatly increased.

THE NEW STEAMSHIP TRUST.

The Press view the new Steamship Trust with alarm, as tending towards the so-called morgantization of the British marine. It is admitted despite the assurances of each of the Companies concerned that they will preserve their nationality, that the Americans control the combination, of which the capital is stated to be thirty-four millions sterling.
The British Admiralty has appointed a commission to consider the whole question.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

THE BRITISH SLOOP, Algerine, arrived from Wei-hai-wei yesterday.

MR. C. B. FRY contradicts the report that he will leave Sussex County in order to play for Hamphire.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY AND THE ORIENT.—It is stated that Mr. Pierpoint Morgan is backing a company for acquiring the Marconi wireless system and proposes to extend the operations to the Orient via the Pacific.

COTTAM & CO., FOR SUN HATS.

THE FIRST BRITISH SUBMARINE boat

Roraro, Mutina and Rinaldo which have gone to Amoy.

THE WORLD'S FAIR, which is to be opened area of 1,000 acres, and will be directly connected with 24 railways.

THE GLASGOW FOOTBALL DISASTER —Twenty-two deaths have now taken place from the Glasgow football disaster and it is stated the injured number 250.

A DUKE'S COUNTRY SEAT DES-TROYED.—Euston Hall, the seat of the Duke of Grafton, has been gutted by fire. The pictures and sculptures were saved.

JAPANESE PLAGUE DOCTORS.—Owing to their almost entire ignorance of the English language we are informed that various senior Sanitary Inspectors have been detailed to accompany the eight Japanese doctors on their rounds.

REMAINS OF LATE LI HUNG CHANG.
—The remains of the late Li Hung-chang will be conveyed to his native place at the beginning of the Chinese 4th moon. The S.S. Asahi of G.M. S.N. Co. will carry the coffin containing the remains of the late Viceroy.

CHOLERA.—For the past forty-eight hours nearly noon to-day there were three cases of cholera, all of which terminated fatally.
The victims were all Chinese. The cases occurred in Third Street, Sai Wo Lane and Chung Hing streets respectively.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Haulstrang, seaman from the German Gun Boat Tiger, was fined $5 for assaulting P.C. No. 622 in the execution of his duty and also damaging his uniform and whatbook to the extent of $3, the property of the Government on the 26th instant.

FOR PUNISHMENT.—On Saturday, last Chief Detective Inspector Hanson handed over to the Chinese Government on board the gun-boat Fuk Poh, four notorious prisoners who have been charged for robbery and other various crimes committed within the jurisdiction of the Emperor of China.

THEFT FROM THE VATICAN.—The trial of three officials of the Vatican who were charged with thefts from the Vatican treasury aggregating £16,000 has been concluded. An official named Sedico was convicted and sentenced to eight years' imprisonment, while the two others were acquitted of the charges against them.

ITALY AND SANMEN BAY.—In consequence of having received telegraphic information from Rome, the Italian Minister here called on Saturday on Prince Ching, the object of the visit being the desire of Italy to obtain a concession or "lease" of Sanmen Bay, in Chekiang. Prince Ching, however, gave a decided refusal to the request.

YUNG LU AND THE REFORMERS.— The native newspapers state that the belief that Yung Lu tried to get the Empress Dowager to pardon all the reformers of 1898 is entirely without foundation. In recent conversations with the Dowager, Yung Lu has frequently referred to the reformers, and this is probably the origin of the rumours in question.

JERRY BUILDINGS.—At the instance of Mr. H. E. Haggard, of the Public Works Department, Lung Fat, a contractor, was fined $100, for violating Section 10 of Ordinance 15 of 1889 by building walls with old broken blue bricks. It may be mentioned that these houses, which are situated at the corner of Old Bailey and Caine Road, are intended for European occupation.

THE ABOLITION OF LIKIN.—Sir James Mackay is said to have notified the Chinese Commissioners that should China abolish the likin system, England will agree to increase the tariff to 15 or 25 per cent. for a period of ten years. If there should be found any likin in existence after the increase of tariff, England will, on behalf of the merchants, demand the return of all increase of duty paid to China.

THE TELEPHONE IN PEKING.—The telephone system which was established by the allied forces in Peking has been discontinued since the restoration of the administration to the Chinese authorities, excepting in those quarters belonging to Prince Su. It is reported that the Chinese Government has decided to purchase the posts and wires, etc., from the powers, and re-establish the working of the telephone, under the control of the Chinese Telegraph Administration.

INSURRECTION IN SHUNTIEU.—The rebellion in Shuntieufu is gaining ground every day with astonishing rapidity. The attributed cause of the desperate action of the rebels is the unbearable taxation the government have imposed on the people. They have fought with the Imperial soldiers which have been sent to crush them, resisting desperately and courageously and though some 2,000 insurgents have been killed they are as determined as ever.

VICTORIA RECREATION CLUB.—We have been informed that the Committee of the Victoria Recreation Club have completed arrangements for running a launch between the Queen's Statue Wharf and the Club at Kowloon during the summer months. The launch will leave the wharf on week-days at 5.45 p.m., returning Club at 7 p.m. and 7.30 p.m. On Sunday mornings the launch will leave the wharf at 6 o'clock and the Club at 8 o'clock.

and tickets may be had at the Club.

after a short illness, of Mr. William Salmon,

GERMAN DEMANDS.—The German Minister asked Chiao-chiao to grant to Germany right to build a railway between China in Shantung to Tientsin in Chili, but China has not yet given any definite reply. The Germans grew impatient, and have already started to survey the districts. Every movement tends to show that Germany is obdurate and will proceed with the design whether China agrees or not.

THE GERMANS IN SHANTUNG.—The German Governor of Kiaochow applied to Chang Jé-chun, Governor of Shantung, to give Germans the privilege of drilling and organising the territorial forces of that province.
Governor Chang at once telegraphed the request to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, asking for instructions, and received the reply that he was to courteously and firmly refuse the application.

THE QUESTION OF INCREASED DUTIES in return for the abolition of Likin throughout the Empire, as might be expected, is meeting with strenuous opposition from the majority of the Viceroy's and Governors of the country. Some of them have even gone so far as to delay sending any reply to the telegrams sent them on the subject, by Sheng Kung-pao and his colleague, Lu Hsi-huan, thereby delaying matters and giving considerable trouble to the negotiating Commissioners.

THE ITALIANS IN PEKING.—The Italian authorities have taken possession of a piece of land south of Peking City known as Huang Tsung. The area of the land is about 100 mu.
The plot is now a cemetery, and it contains the graves of a number of officials. TheItalians of these officials have petitioned against the Italians being allowed to take over land in which are the remains of their fathers and sons.
Prince Ching, on behalf of the Board of Foreign Affairs, at once made enquiries, and offered to give another piece of land in place of that which is to the Chinese sacred.

REMODELLING MANCHURIA.—The Department of State Affairs (Chengwu Ch'u) is now consulting with the Plenipotentiaries, Prince Ching and Wang Wen-shao, concerning the remodelling of the Manchurian provinces after those of China Proper. The idea is to appoint Viceroy's, Governors, Treasurers, Judges, Taotais, Prefects, District Magistrates, etc., and their military equivalents, and also to raise three foreign-modelled Army Corps for the three provinces. Prince Ching, it is stated, approves of this scheme, but Wang Wen-shao opposes it. It is thought, however, that the remodelling of Manchuria is only a question of a short time.

YUEN SHI KAP'S TROOPS IN BATTLE.— There has been a battle between Yuan Shikap's troops and the Ling Chiao Society at a place called Kuang Chung, 400 li S.W. of Tientsin. Between one and two thousand of the latter were killed, but they were only armed with swords and pitchforks. Taking this circumstance into consideration, the foreign-drilled troops with modern weapons made a poor show as they lost between four and five hundred men. This, together with the

R. W. F. ASSAULT AT ARMS.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent last Saturday when the Royal Welch Fusiliers gave an assault at arms on the New Parade Ground in the presence of a large number of people. The programme had been arranged with considerable care and evidence of the excellent training the men had undergone was apparent in the manner they carried out their work. The Officer Administering the Government (H. E. Major General Sir W. J. Gascoigne K.C.M.G.) and Lady Gascoigne were among those present with many of the leading citizens. The Regimental band was in attendance and discoursed sweet music during the proceedings.

PRESENTATION TO THE REV. G. J. WILLIAMS.

On Friday evening, a very pleasing function took place at the Union Church on the occasion of the approaching departure of the Rev. and Mrs. G. J. Williams for home. The couple were the happy recipients of a carved black wood writing desk, a black wood chair, an inkstand with silver bottle—from the soldier and sailor members of the Christian Endeavour Society, and also an illuminated address. Surmounted by a photograph of the Union Church, besides a silver glove-box a silver rose—bowl, on a black wood stand from the Ladies Committee of the Society. The Rev. G. J. Williams preached a farewell sermon yesterday morning before a very big congregation. The best wishes of a large circle of friends go with Mr. and Mrs. Williams on their departure from the Colony.

FIRES IN HONGKONG.

At about one o'clock yesterday, the fire bell rang and denoted that a fire had broken out in the Central part of the town. It was soon discovered that No. 73, Jervois Street was in a fiery blaze, and being fanned by a strong breeze soon spread to the adjoining houses on both sides, viz Nos. 71 and 75. The fire Brigade, under Acting Deputy Superintendent Mackie and Mr. Macdonald, soon arrived on the scene and succeeded in confining the conflagration to the houses. The flames also caught hold on No. 12 a Bird Street situated at the back of Jervois Street. During the operations P. C. Arie and a Chinese fireman were slightly injured by the falling debris and were taken to the hospital. The cause of the fire is at present unknown. The premises were entirely gutted, and were insured for $11,500 on the Fook On Insurance Company. An alarm of fire was also raised on Saturday night, and the outbreak was found to be in the Victoria Barracks. The fire was easily extinguished by the occupants. Very little damage was done.

WATCH AND PRAY.

(Written for the Hongkong Telegraph.)

"Professor Simpson, in his second memorandum on plague makes an old suggestion viz, that of fining the residents of a street in the event of a dead body being found in it"—Hongkong Telegraph. All hail Professor! your's the praise, For having thus divined. A method sure this course to meet, Of dumping bodies in the street! It must ensure the swift defeat, When every house is fined.

Your synthesis so simple is, Such keen acumen shows! Such justice in your wisdom lurks! That he who fumigation shirks, And gains the city's welfare works, No more up uninvited goes.

Patrols were quite inadequate To make the evil cease. Therefore, thus your deductions run— The way to find the guilty one, Is to fine the lot! This, once begun, Would make the plague decrease.

But sweeping measures such as these, Might seem unfair to some, I sadly fear your scheme, great Sir, Is—please correct me if I err— The sort of plan that might occur To fatuous Bumbledom.

Suppose for sake of argument, While sleep your senses panned, Within your street a stranger stopped, And on the ground a body dropped, Would you with equal zeal adopt The course you recommend?

No! No! Professor, this at least, The lay mind can discuss, If every resident must pay, For fault he cannot well defray, There's nothing left to him, but pray, "May Heaven shelter us!"

Of else, forego his wonted sleep, And with a loaded gun, Upon his doormat perch at night, Less body-dumper leave in sight, Until the gracious morning light, Announce his vigil done.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

SUPREME COURT.

IN ORIGINAL JURISDICTION.

Before His Hon. W. Maugh Goodman (Chief Justice) and His Honour T. Sercombe Smith (Acting Puisne Judge).

April 26th.

HOWARD AND STEPHENS V. THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

Plaintiffs asked leave to appeal to His Majesty in Privy Council from a decision of the Full Court on 24th March, refusing to grant plaintiffs special leave to appeal to the Full Court from a judgement of Sir John Carrington delivered on 1st December, 1900. Mr. M. J. D. Stephens, solicitor, appeared for the plaintiffs. The Attorney-General was not present.

After hearing arguments adduced by Mr. Stephens.

The Chief Justice said—This is a petition of Mr. Thomas Howard and Mr. Matthew John Denman Stephens, the plaintiffs in an action brought against the Attorney-General of Hongkong, asking that they may have leave to appeal to His Majesty the King in Privy Council, from a decision, which they call in their petition judgement, of the Full Court of this Colony, delivered on the 24th March, 1902, the effect of special leave to appeal to the Full Court from a judgement of Sir John W. Carrington, the then Chief Justice of Hongkong, delivered on the 1st December, 1900. The decision of the 24th March, 1902, discharged a Rule Nisi had been obtained by the plaintiffs on 13th March, 1902, calling upon the Attorney-General to show cause why they should not have such special leave to grant such leave. It is from this refusal that the plaintiffs now desire to appeal to His Majesty in Council. It will conduce to clearness if matters are set forth. On 22nd November, then Major-General Black, C.B., the Officer then Administering the Government of this Colony, awarded a sum of $150,000, under Section 7, sub sec. VI, of the Praya Reclamation Ordinance, 1889, by way of compensation for any injury sustained by the plaintiffs, Howard and Stephens, by the reclamation works carried out under the authority of that Ordinance.

THE PLAINTIFFS, NOT BEING SATISFIED with that award, brought a petition against the Attorney-General of the Colony under the provisions of Section 83 of the Hongkong Code of Procedure, 1873, at that time in force. (Ordinance No. 13 of 1873). Section 83 provided that—All claims against the Government of the Colony of the same nature as claims within the provisions of "The Petitions of Right Act, 1860," may, with the consent of the Governor, be preferred in the Supreme Court in a suit instituted by the claimant as plaintiff against the Attorney-General as defendant. That petition was filed on 21st December 1899, and claimed to have the award in question wholly set aside and declared by the Court to be wholly null and void and of no effect. It is not necessary for the Court, on this occasion, to give any opinion on the question whether proceedings of this kind come within the purview of the Petition of Right Act, 1860. The answer to the petition, besides raising various issues of fact, raised one of law, which was ordered to be tried before the issues of fact. The issue of law, as settled by the Court, was as follows:—

"Assuming all the facts stated in the petition to be true, and having regard to the provisions of the Praya Reclamation Ordinance, 1889, has the Court jurisdiction to enquire into the proceedings connected with the award referred to in the petition, and to set aside the said award and declare it null and void?" On 1st December, 1900, the then Chief Justice, Sir John Carrington, delivered a written, considered, judgment in favour of the defendant, holding that the Court had not such jurisdiction, owing to the wording of the Praya Reclamation Ordinance. Instead of promptly appealing from that judgment to the Full Court, if they were dissatisfied with it, the plaintiffs presented a petition of right to His Majesty the King, and they allege that they did so under the advice of their counsel. They state, in an affidavit, that they forwarded this petition to their London agents on 14th September, 1901, for presentation to His Majesty in Council. This proceeding was held to be contrary to established precedent. On the 20th January, 1902, the plaintiffs found that the course they had adopted was

IRREGULAR AND OUT OF ORDER.

They then, instead of immediately asking for special leave to appeal from the judgment of Sir John Carrington to the Full Court, under Section 606 of the new Code of Civil Procedure, 1901 (which took effect from 1st July, 1901, and limited the ordinary right of appeal to six months) commenced writing to the Colonial Secretary with a view, as they say in an affidavit to a settlement of the matters in question. The Colonial Secretary, as appears in the letters annexed to the affidavit of the Crown Solicitor, dated 23rd March, 1902, wrote to the plaintiffs on the 31st January, 1902, explaining the position of the Government and pointing out that His Excellency the Officer now Administering the Government had no power to alter the amount of General Black's award and adding that His Excellency saw no necessity, for continuing the correspondence with regard to the claim which had been going on for many years. The result of the correspondence not proving satisfactory to the plaintiffs they obtained on 13th March, 1902, the Rule Nisi (which has been mentioned) calling upon the Attorney-General to show cause why they should not have leave to appeal (the words of the Code are "special leave") from the judgement of Sir John Carrington, of 1st December, 1900. The notice of motion was filed 27th February, 1901. It may have been observed that the present Code of Civil Procedure in Hongkong is Ordinance No. 5 of 1901, the former Code of 1873 having been repealed by Ordinance No. 6 of 1891. The Code of 1901 was passed on 12th March, 1901, and came into operation on 1st July, 1901 (see Section 711). By Section 710 it was provided that it was to apply so far as might be practicable to all proceedings taken after it came into operation in all causes and matters then pending. It was added that Section 478 relating to the mode of preferring claims against the Government of the Colony is similar to Section 83 of the former Code of 1873 previously referred to. The question the Court has now to decide is whether the plaintiffs should have leave to appeal to the King in Privy Council from the refusal of the Full Court to grant special leave to appeal. No doubt, the courts have held that, in the ordinary course of things, therefore, a Court of Appeal will not entertain an application to appeal from a decision refusing special leave to appeal. The reasons for this are fully set out in the opinions of Lord Halsbury, the present Lord Chancellor, and of the late Lord Herschell, in Land v. Esdaile in the House of Lords. It must be borne in mind that Section 606 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1901 is taken (as appears by the marginal note) from Order 58, rule 15, of the English Orders and Rules, although, the period of 6 months is fixed in all cases as the limit of the ordinary right to appeal to the Full Court from any decision of the Court, instead of the times mentioned in the English Order and Rule. Lord Herschell, in the opinion I have mentioned,—"It cannot be doubted that the object of the 15th rule of the 58th Order was to make the judgements, after the lapse of a year,

PRACTICALLY FINAL. (Since this opinion was delivered the period has been reduced to 3 months.) "It is clear that some time must be fixed at which the right of appeal should cease, otherwise parties would never know what their rights were and there would be no possibility of people being safe in dealing with the fruits of a judgment, because the judgment might be still subject to appeal. But then it was thought that there might be special circumstances in which the Court of Appeal might relax that rule and consider that, notwithstanding it, an appeal should be permitted. I think that the matter was entrusted, as intended to be entrusted, to their discretion; and that the exercise of a discretion of that sort entrusted to them is not, within the true meaning of the Appellate Jurisdiction Act, an order or judgment from which there can be an appeal." If, therefore, the present application had been an appeal to the House of Lords from the refusal of the English Court of Appeal to grant special leave to appeal, it would appear that the House would not entertain such an appeal. This, however, is an application for leave to appeal to the King in Privy Council from the refusal of the Full Court of Hongkong to grant special leave to appeal to the Full Court from a judgment delivered more than 15 months previously. Appeals to the King in Privy Council from the Supreme Court of Hongkong may be brought, if certain conditions precedent are complied with, against "Any final judgment, decree or sentence, or against any rule or order made in any such civil suit or action, and having the effect of a final or definite sentence," subject to the rules and limitations set out in the Regulations and Instructions to the Governor. I presume the refusal to grant leave must be taken to be and personally, I should rather leave it to the Privy Council to determine whether it is "an order" of the kind to be held appealable. As regards the security to be given by the appellants for the prosecution of the appeal, and for the payment of costs, the sum should be $300 sterling, and the security should be by way of bond with one or more sufficient sureties, or by way of mortgage upon some sufficient immovable property, situate in Hongkong, to the satisfaction of the Registrar. If such security be given and completed within three months from the date of the petition for leave to appeal, i.e., within three months from 1st April, 1902, the Court will, the other conditions precedent having been already complied with be prepared to make an order allowing the appeal to be prosecuted. The Court has been informed by the Attorney-General that he has no desire to oppose this application.

The Acting Puisne Judge—I agree. I think that if we were to act upon the case of Land v. Esdaile and the other cases referred to and refused leave to appeal we should be adding to the Rules and Limitations subject to which appeals should be allowed. We must leave it to the Privy Council to decide whether any appeal to their Lordships from the decision of the Full Court here is competent.
